Next meeting agenda December 7, 2000:

- ❖ David Megan will discuss trophy game care.
- ❖ David Megan will have a discussion and demonstration of how to make self bows.
- ❖ We will also be discussing club elections. (As if we haven't heard enough about elections lately).

Minutes of last meeting November 2, 2000:

- ❖ Nov 1st Deer butchering demonstration at MO Conservation shop was a success. Approximately 20 people were present to watch and pick up tips from Glen Olinger, expert butcher, hunter and all-around great guy.
- ❖ Now on to the Thursday meeting, Nov. 2nd--- Charlie Langreder started off the meeting with an informal "Hunt the Rut" quiz taken from Outdoor Life Magazine.
- ❖ Charlie showed the Game Finder Infrared Detector. While the unit was passed around the room and the demo tape played on the television, the merits, features and limitations of the unit were discussed.
- ❖ A roundtable general discussion of this year's hunting experiences by all members was the next focus of the meeting including comparing the pop-up blinds brought in and set up by Allen Bock and Charlie L. (Ameristep Outhouse and the DoubleBull I.C.E. blinds, respectively)
- ❖ Kelly Veach moved that the club provide awards for this hunting season. He had purchased a couple of closeout knives at Walmart which the club reimbursed him for. The Schrade Cliphander Viper knives will be awarded to the Best Buck (by club member vote) and the Last Deer of the Season. These folding hunting knives will be awarded at the Feb meeting so bring the fruits of your labor and/or witness to claim the prizes. Good Luck and Good Hunting!!
- ❖ Submitted by Allen Bock

New Bowhunter:

- ❖ Shana Campbell had her baby on Thursday morning (November 9, 2000). It is a BOY. Congratulations Shana and Rick.
