Next meeting agenda, Thursday, September 8, 2001 7:00 p.m.:

- ❖ We will meet at the Optimist Clubhouse.
- ❖ We are having Brian Flowers (The MDC Hunter Skills Specialist) as the speaker.
 - He will start getting us lined up to teach Bow Ed classes again.
- ❖ We will discuss the Bow Tuning Clinic.
 - Saturday, Sept 22nd at the Legion Range.
 - Please plan to attend this event.
 - Originally, it was discussed to be 12 to 4 p.m., but the Columbia Parks and Rec incorrectly printed 12 to 5 p.m. in the Leisure Times booklet. We will talk about this at the meeting.
- ❖ We will discuss if we are interested in having another Best Buck/Last Deer contest again this season.

Minutes of last meeting, August 2, 2001:

- ❖ Meeting was held at the Legion Range.
- ❖ Discussion of rising non-resident permits of other states.
 - Colorado---$250 last year, $450 this year.
 - Iowa---$150 this year, $308 next year.
- ❖ Jim Wiseman spoke of the NFAA Shooters School that he and Charlie Langreder had attended in Marshfield, MO.
 - Both agreed it was a good program and well worth the time and money spent.
 - They both now carry NFAA liability insurance for class purposes. (As in cases such as the upcoming Bow Clinic).
- ❖ New Ruling,
 - Any youth under 16 that shows interest (with accompanying adult sponsor) will be a free associate club member.
- ❖ Approved to send out reminders via mail to members behind on their club dues.
- ❖ Members shot until it became too dark to see.
- ❖ Submitted by Allen Bock.

As of September 6, 2001 --- 24 days until October 1!
